

We are pleased to announce that, as of the beginning of the year, Chris D. Artkämper has joined our long-standing Managing Director, Dr. Thomas Rister, as part of the management team of the THOMAS Group in Langenselbold.

Together, the new management team will continue to shape the strategic direction of the THOMAS Group and pursue our successful growth path alongside our customers. The continuous alignment of our product portfolio with the needs of our customers and our positioning as a reliable partner will remain a core focus for the THOMAS Group.

With strong expertise in finance, controlling, strategy and risk management, and a background in industrial engineering, Chris D. Artkämper will drive the continued development of the THOMAS Group alongside Dr. Thomas Rister.

THOMAS Group manufactures more than 5 billion components annually for the aerosol, cosmetics, and pharmaceutical industries, employs around 500 people worldwide, and looks back on a challenging yet successful financial year.